Action

1. Media Advertising

Tim Dye invited to talk about the opportunity of marketing events etc through using Impact, URB and CTV, gave out leaflets with contact details. There is an Arts page in Impact, contact Tom Newman or Emma Gray with news.

2. Junction 49

New member of staff Sabrina Sallis (ss369@bath.ac.uk) who allocates money from the government to fund community work – can include equipment, travel etc. Funding can be up to £750

3. Show in a Week wash-up

It was agreed that more societies were involved this year which was better and the DVD should be available by Easter as there is a backlog. The show made a significant profit as money received from Deloitte helped to fund the costs and so Arts Exec will making a donation to the Arts Complex. It was noted that the dressing room was very overcrowded, there is not a lot that can be done to resolve this problem but Tom Newman mentioned looking into a marquee for next year.

4. Treasurer's Forms

Combined
Exec

Noted that forms handed in to the Societies office are not properly completed.
Reminder all codes and how to fill out forms available online.

5. Socs Awards

New date and venue, now the 2nd May at the Pump Rooms. Unsure about price tickets and performances as yet to be decided by combined exec.

6. Next Semester's Events

BUSMS: Godspell in March

Rocksoc: Working towards end of year gig

Salsa: Guest workshop in February and annual UBSA event in March

BUST: Spiders Web in late Feb early March and filming with the BBC

Gravity Vomit: convention on campus a possibility, looking into funding from the Alumni office at the University

Capoeira: Workshops, trips to Bristol & London to see other groups perform

ChAOS: Lots of various concerts and recitals

BodySoc: Fashion Show and their annual show in April based on seven deadly sins

Breakdancing: another breakdown after the success of last weeks in Elements, take part in University championships, Fashion Show and have demonstrators from London

7. Questions or comments

Salsa: have a PA system and nowhere to store it, is there space available on campus?

Tom Newman and Hayden Arrowsmith pointed out lack of SU space but maybe ICIA have somewhere, also the availability of a parking permit from the Societies office should they need to drive it onto campus.

8. A.O.B.

The Alumni fund application deadline is Friday 14th December at 5pm.
