

This opportunity profile is designed to give you an idea of what your role as Senate Representative would involve. It highlights the commitments, skills and benefits you can expect from taking up that role.

Role: Senate Representative	Department: Academic Representation (within the Students' Union)
Opportunity: The Senate Representative sits on Senate (the most senior University committee), alongside Students' Union Officers, with the aim of seeking to positively uphold and implement the aims and objectives of the Students' Union. The Senate Representative is elected from the student body and will sit on the Academic Executive. Duties and Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attend and represent all students at Senate. Attend a briefing and debriefing with the Students' Union prior to and after each meeting of Senate. Attend Academic Executive and report after each Senate meeting. Liaise with Students' Union Officers and Faculty Representatives as appropriate on academic issues, including relevant content of University meetings. Positively promote the aims and objectives of the Students' Union. Support running of Academic campaigns and research throughout the year. 	Time Commitment: One academic year minimum. 1 Day Academic Representatives Conference 2 hours per month attendance at Academic Executive. 2 hours every 2 months (for Senate) 1 hour prior to and after Senate meetings to attend briefing/debriefing for all attendees Attend Student Engagement Sub Committee to look at how the student voice is supported across the university. (4 meetings per year approx. 2hrs each) Time to liaise with members of relevant Students' Union and University bodies as appropriate. <hr/> Venue: Advice and Representation Centre (Level 3, The Student Centre). <hr/> Supported by: SU Education Officer, SU President, Representation and Engagement Manager, Representation and Engagement Co-ordinator and Academic Representation Co-ordinator. <hr/>

Benefits: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Training provided Enhances employability Represent the interests of a large group at a high-level decision-making body Work with a diverse group of colleagues Develop a depth of understanding of relevant issues Develop the confidence and skills to achieve your goals.
--

Skills Gained: Participating in this opportunity will enable you to develop and practice the following skills (marked ✓)

Written Communication	✓	Teamwork	✓	Financial Management
-----------------------	---	----------	---	----------------------	--

Verbal Communication	✓	Time Management		I.T.
Delegation		People Management		Organisation/ Planning	✓
Decision Making	✓	Negotiation	✓	Marketing
Others (as specified below): Committee work and public speaking

For further info contact:

Amy Young
Representation and Engagement Manager
Advice and Representation Centre
(Student Centre 3.1)
a.young@bath.ac.uk

Websites:

<https://www.bathstudent.com/education/senaterep/>
www.bath.ac.uk/statutory-bodies-committees/bodies-and-committees-senate/Senate/index.html